

METEORIC SHOWERS

Billed for Twenty-Seventh—Sleet and Snow Also Promised.

Following is a summary of the weather for November, as predicted by Hicks:

Rain may be expected between 1st and 3rd, followed by a decidedly cold wave for the season, with snow in the North. From 7th to 8th warmer with more rain, possibly turning to snow in central and northern States. Heavy autumnal storms and gales are probable between 11th and 14th, and rain, sleet and snow will visit vast areas of the continent. A November blizzard of sleet and snow in the North may be looked for about 17th to 20th and lasting until 23rd. From 25th to 28th, warmer, with thunder and lightning, accompanied by high winds and followed by a cold wave. Meteoric showers are due on and about the 27th. The last two days of the month will bring higher temperature and tendency to general rain or snow.

FRANKEL STOCK

Sold as a Whole to a Louisville Firm.

Mr. Sam Frankel on Saturday night sold as a whole his stock of goods recently damaged by fire and smoke, to Robt. T. Sommers, & Co., of Louisville, and the "Great Fire Sale," advertised on the second page of this issue of the KENTUCKIAN, has been declared off. The purchasers will remove the stock from this city at once. Mr. Frankel is still occupying his temporary headquarters, opposite the KENTUCKIAN office, and has an immense stock of brand new goods, which he has placed upon the market.

water proof and will be heated and made comfortable. There will be services each day, at 2:30 o'clock p. m., and 7 p. m. The meeting will probably continue two weeks and everybody is invited to attend. A large crowd attended the services last night.

SCALCHI IS COMING.

Great Singer Is Booked For The Night of Nov. 7.

The Scalchi guaranty has been secured and the engagement for next Tuesday night is settled beyond doubt.

Scalchi is the only singer in the world who never had an unfavorable criticism made of her art.

The musical world is unable to find any contralto singer to equal the great Scalchi.

Scalchi's voice seems to lose none its rich, melodious quality.

Chevalier Lo Werdi the musical director of the Scalchi Operatic Festival Company is very distinguished in Italy, not only as a musician and pianist but as a composer. On the occasion of conducting one of his own compositions he has immediately decorated by the King and had conferred upon him the title of "Chevalier" an act of rare account in that country.

This rare opportunity to hear a renowned queen of song is one that that seldom comes to small cities like this. Seats on sale at Armistead's.
